PRIVACY NOTICE

This document sets out how we use, collect and disclose personal information about you. It replaces any information about privacy we have previously provided to you. Further information is in our Privacy Policy available on our website www.unityhousing.org.au

At Unity we give priority to protecting the privacy of your personal information. We do this by handling personal information in a responsible manner and in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

How we collect your personal information

We usually collect your personal information directly from you. We may also collect it from your support providers or referral agencies, medical practitioners, law enforcement, dispute resolution, statutory and regulatory bodies and publicly available sources.

Why we collect your personal information

We collect your personal information to enable us to provide housing services to you.

Who we disclose your personal information to

We will only share your personal information with another individual or organisation when we have your written consent. In certain circumstances we may provide information without your consent to government, law enforcement, dispute resolution, statutory or regulatory bodies as required by law.

Disclosure overseas

Unity may use a server hosted overseas to store data which may include your personal information. We regularly review the security of our systems used for storing and sending personal information overseas. Any information disclosed may only be used for the purposes of collection detailed above and system administration.

Access to your personal information and complaints

You can ask for access to the personal information we hold about you and seek to correct it by contacting our Privacy Officer. We may ask you to put your request in writing. Our Privacy Policy contains details of how you can make a complaint about a breach of privacy principles contained in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).
